GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

ESTADISTICA is the scientific journal of the Inter-American Statistical Institute (IASI). It aims to publish contributions about themes in theoretical and applied Statistics, giving emphasis to original applications and the solution of problems of wide interest to Statisticians and Scientists. Papers presented should include careful analysis of the problem at hand, have a clear presentation in order to contribute to the dissemination of methodology and good statistical practice, and contain adequate interpretation of the outcomes. They may also aim to contribute to a better understanding of the scope and limitations of the methods considered. Papers may tackle problems in any areas of interest including public statistics, health, education, industry, finance, etc. Theoretical contributions without a corresponding application will be published if they represent a significant advance in the knowledge of the discipline at the international scale and contain a clear indication of how the methods developed may be useful for relevant applications.

This publication is registered in the following institutions: the Current Index to Statistics (CIS) of the American Statistical Association (ASA) and the Institute of Mathematical Statistics (IMS), Zentralblatt-Math, and the "Sistema Regional de Información en línea para Revista Científicas de América Latina, el Caribe, España y Portugal (LATINDEX)" (in English, Regional System of Online Information for Scientific Journals of Latin America, the Caribbean, Spain and Portugal). The editorial board of ESTADISTICA of international scope, and is composed of outstanding statisticians of renowned level.

If you wish to submit a paper, please send two copies of your research to the editor by e-mail, one of them anonymous. Editor in Chief: jabril@herrera.unt.edu.ar, Executive Editor: mabrilblanco@hotmail.com.

Editorial process is double-blind so the name and the full postal address of the authors to whom further correspondence is to be sent must appear only in one of the copies. Papers will be accepted in Word, in LATEX, or in Scientific WorkPlace format. During the refereeing process several aspects of the paper are evaluated, namely, whether or not it is considered:
    a) important;
    b) interesting;
    c) correct;
    d) original; and
    e) adequate,
according to the profile of our magazine. Any paper will be published on this journal when it simultaneously satisfies these five requisites.
